

ARDI Volunteer Registration Process

Purpose

This document is a step-by-step guide to help you through the ARDI Support Volunteer Registration Process. This year's registration process is all new and ALL electronic! Gone are the days of using paper and Adobe forms attached in email.

Registration

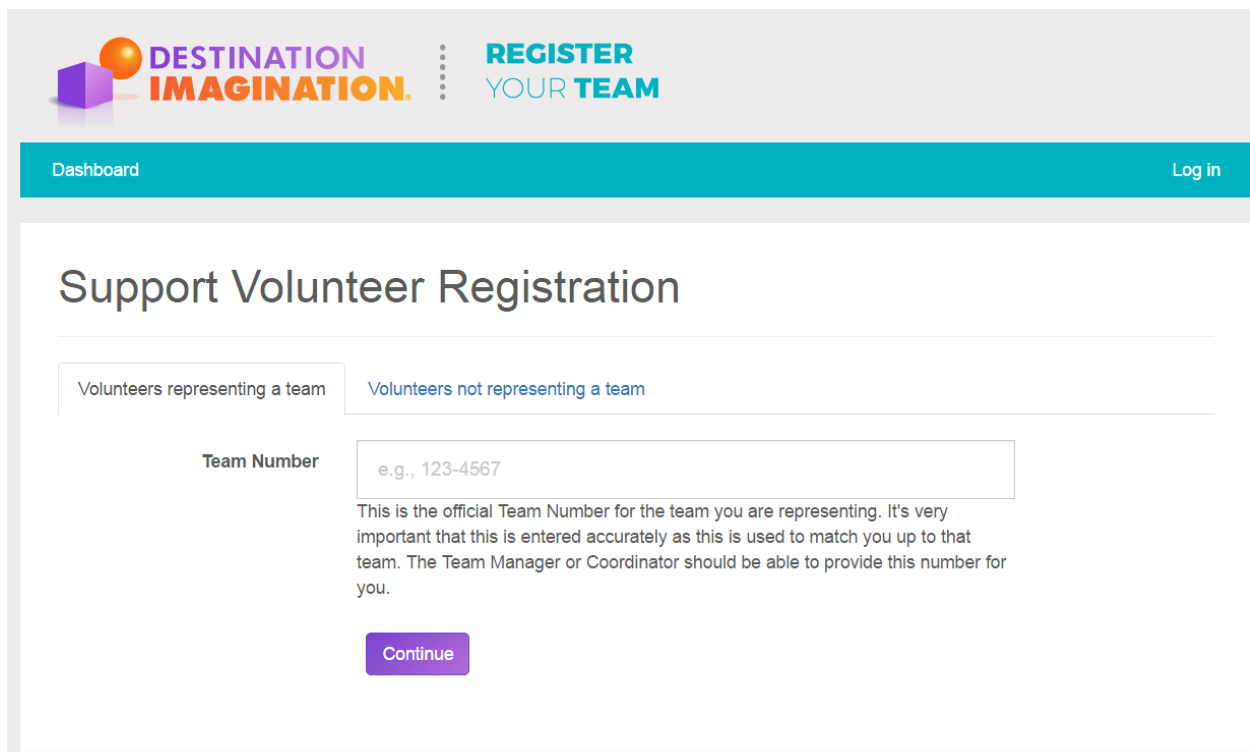

If you are volunteering on behalf of a team, you may have received a link from the team manager via email. If you did, you may use that link to register.

If you didn't receive a link from the team manager, No Problem. You may go to the following address and select the Volunteers representing a team tab. Enter the team number and click Continue.

Go to Register your team website: <https://registeryourteam.org/supportvolunteer>

Note: As a volunteer, you will not need to login.

Volunteers representing a team
